

Lockout Tagout Quiz

- 1. If in doubt about an energy source or how to control it, just ask a co-worker for advice.
a. True b. False
- 2. Before working on simple powered equipment, you may only switch it off and not worry about lockout/tagout.
a. True b. False
- 3. The purpose of a lock in the lockout/tagout procedure is to prevent an accidental start of the equipment.
a. True b. False
- 4. An “affected employee” may work with powered equipment, but he/she does not need lockout/tagout training.
a. True b. False
- 5. If an employee finds a switch that has been turned off – without a lock or tag – it is safe for him to turn it on.
a. True b. False
- 6. Lockout/tagout accidents can happen when someone gets lazy or willing to take chances.
a. True b. False
- 7. As an authorized employee, it is your responsibility to inform “affected employees” of your activities during lockout/tagout.
a. True b. False
- 8. It is okay to remove someone else’s lock.
a. True b. False
- 9. It is okay to just “hang” a tag somewhere around the switch.
a. True b. False
- 10. It is best to use standardized locks and tags, i.e the same shape, color, and size.
a. True b. False