

Hand Trucks and Dollies Quiz

1. Other workers are often injured when a hand truck operator stacks materials so high that he or she cannot see over the stack.

a. True b. False

2. The frame and tires on hand trucks and dollies are the only things that require inspection before use.

a. True b. False

3. Hand trucks and dollies must be inspected monthly.

a. True b. False

4. The basic PPE required when using hand trucks and dollies includes work shoes with toe protection and work gloves.

a. True b. False

5. When stacking objects, make sure the center of gravity of the stack or load is low to the ground and centered on the hand truck or dolly.

a. True b. False

6. When operating on a ramp, you should keep the load uphill.

a. True b. False

7. Good housekeeping is an important way to prevent accidents.

a. True b. False

8. Parked hand trucks and dollies do not present any hazards to nearby workers.

a. True b. False

9. The truck should carry the load while the operator merely pushes and balances.

a. True b. False

10. If a two-wheeled truck is loaded in a horizontal position, raise it by using leg muscles, keep the back straight.

a. True b. False