

Ladders Quiz

- 1. OSHA standards cover ladder inspection and safe use procedures.
  - a. True b. False

- 2. A ladder's rating (I-A, I, II, III) tells you:
  - a. The combined weight of person and equipment it can handle safely
  - b. The number of people it can handle safely.
  - c. What type of temperature conditions it can handle safely

- 3. When you work around electricity, you should use a metal ladder.
  - a. True b. False

- 4. To prevent falls, ladder rungs and step surfaces should be:
  - a. Worn thin
  - b. Slip-resistant
  - c. Treated with oil

- 5. If a ladder is damaged or has parts missing, you should:
  - a. Fix it
  - b. Use it
  - c. Tag it and turn it in

- 6. A ladder should extend:
  - a. Only to the top support
  - b. At least three feet above the top support
  - c. Six feet above the top support

- 7. The distance between the ladder's base and the surface it leans against should be:
  - a. About six inches
  - b. One-fourth the ladder's length
  - c. One-half the ladder's length

- 8. The maximum number of people permitted on a ladder is:
  - a. One
  - b. Two
  - c. Depends on the weight of the people

- 9. When you climb a ladder, you should face the ladder and hold both side rails.
  - a. True b. False

- 10. The best way to carry tools on a ladder is:
  - a. In your hand
  - b. On a belt, rope, or hoist
  - c. In your back pocket