

Identifying Substance Abuse Quiz

- 1. It's no one's business if a person uses drugs at work.
  - a. True b. False

- 2. The Drug-Free Workplace Act applies to:
  - a. All employers
  - b. Employers with federal contracts
  - c. Employers that produce drugs

- 3. Cocaine and amphetamines are actually a plus at work because they give people energy.
  - a. True b. False

- 4. Being defensive and blaming others for problems may be signs of:
  - a. Heroin abuse
  - b. Marijuana abuse
  - c. Alcohol abuse

- 5. Cocaine users can create a safety hazard when they feel and act:
  - a. Almost superhuman
  - b. Mellow
  - c. Defensive

- 6. Marijuana is a safety hazard because it:
  - a. Slows reactions and distorts space and distance perceptions
  - b. Creates violent behavior
  - c. Speeds up actions and reactions

- 7. Hallucinogens like LSD and angel dust are dangerous because users:
  - a. See and hear things that aren't there
  - b. Act and react in a slow, fuzzy way
  - c. Have poor coordination

- 8. Drugs that slow people down include:
  - a. Amphetamines and cocaine
  - b. Marijuana, heroin, and sedatives
  - c. Hallucinogens

- 9. If you suspect a co-worker might have a substance abuse problem, you should first:
  - a. Report it to the police
  - b. Accuse the person of substance abuse
  - c. Talk to the person about why you're concerned about substance abuse

- 10. Substance abusers often get help from groups like:
  - a. AA
  - b. YMCA
  - c. OSHA