

Eye Protection Quiz

- 1. Flying objects, a serious eye hazard, require protective eyewear that has:
 - a. Side protection
 - b. An adjustable headband
 - c. Filtered lenses

- 2. You should select protective eyewear that protects you against:
 - a. The minimum level of potential hazard
 - b. The maximum level of potential hazard
 - c. All hazards listed by OSHA as a risk to the eyes

- 3. To protect eyes from dust, gases, and mists, you need:
 - a. Safety spectacles made of metal
 - b. Welding goggles with filtered lenses
 - c. Tight-fitting chemical goggles or face shields over industrial safety glasses

- 4. Protecting eyes against radiant energy requires:
 - a. Welding goggles with special filtered lenses
 - b. Chipping goggles with eyecups
 - c. Safety spectacles or goggles with side protection

- 5. Safety goggles with side protection are the greatest possible protection against large quantities of flying objects.
 - a. True b. False

- 6. To get a good fit with safety goggles:
 - a. Make sure the sidepieces touch the side of the head and curl behind the ears.
 - b. Use a lens defogger
 - c. Adjust the strap and place it low on the back of the head

- 7. People who wear contact lenses should not wear them:
 - a. Around dust or chemicals
 - b. With any protective eyewear
 - c. Around radiant energy

- 8. When protective eyewear lenses are too pitted or scratched to see through, they should be:
 - a. Defogged
 - b. Worn with a face shield
 - c. Replaced

- 9. After cleaning, protective eyewear should be stored in a:
 - a. Closed container to prevent damage and keep out dust and dampness.
 - b. Paper envelope
 - c. Locked fireproof cabinet

- 10. If something hits your eye, you should see a doctor immediately.
 - a. True b. False