

First Aid For Burns Quiz

1. Burn hazards on the job may include contact with steam, flame, hot equipment, and certain chemicals.

- a. True b. False

2. The most serious burns, which can destroy skin and even underlying tissue, are:

- a. First-degree burns
- b. Second-degree burns
- c. Third-degree burns

3. The first thing to do for a third degree burn is to:

- a. Get immediate medical attention
- b. Apply wrapped ice packs or cool water
- c. Check MSDS instructions

4. The first thing to do for a first-degree burn is to:

- a. Get immediate medical attention
- b. Apply wrapped ice packs or cool water
- c. Check MSDS instructions

5. Electrical burns never require medical attention.

- a. True b. False

6. First-aid treatment for chemical burns usually involves:

- a. Applying petroleum jelly
- b. Flushing the affected skin or eyes with water for 15 minutes
- c. Elevating the burned body part for an hour

7. You should never rub a burn.

- a. True b. False

8. Second-degree burns should get prompt medical attention when they involve:

- a. The face, hands, genitals, or a large skin area
- b. Direct contact with flames
- c. Body parts that are never exposed to the sun

9. If burns blister, you should:

- a. Apply butter or petroleum jelly
- b. Leave the blisters alone unless they break
- c. Break the blisters and apply butter or petroleum jelly

10. If a chemical burns the skin, the best place to find first aid instructions is its:

- a. PPE
- b. Storage instructions
- c. MSDS