Your donation helps tremendously and makes a great difference in my life.

TAYLOR S.
Elementary Education

Taylor, a junior at Middle Georgia State University pursuing a degree in Elementary Education, is dedicated to excelling academically and maintaining a strong GPA. She is supported by a loving family, motivated to become the best teacher possible, and takes pride in striving for excellence.

Her scholarship provides essential financial relief, allowing her to focus on earning her degree and achieving her goals. Committed to community service, she participated in clean-up days and packed care packages for the Salvation Army. She currently tutors children to gain valuable experience for her future teaching career.
